

Brad was introduced to the Enneagram in 1986 shortly after the wisdom had found its way into Spiritual Direction circles. He soon took the deep dive when Ted Dobson, one of the early Enneagram teachers and authors, became Brad's spiritual director. That companionship lasted for 20 years until Ted's untimely death. During those rich years of inner work, Brad attended numerous Enneagram workshops with many early teachers including Claudio Naranjo. Brad is a certified teacher in the Hurley Dobson method of Enneagram understanding. More than a personality typology, Brad emphasizes the deeper roots of Enneagram wisdom, focusing on the centers of intelligence, the 4th way teachings of G.I. Gurdjieff and the teachings of Maurice Nichol, one of Gurdjieff's students. Brad utilizes the Enneagram with individuals seeking to deepen their spiritual journey and teams seeking to work together more harmoniously and effectively.
